

ProjectsToday Weekly Round UP : 25 - 31 January 2009

Friday, 30 Jan, 2009

Every Saturday ProjectsToday brings together important project-related developments transpiring during the week, in the Weekly Round-Up. These developments are presented as information nuggets with relevant hyperlinks leading you to more details available in the sections – Project News, Projects Information and Project Tenders. The entire compilation has been organized in subjects to facilitate reference. The following report pertains to the period 25 -January 2009.

New Projects

(To view new projects added during the period 25 - 31 January 2009, click here)

- Southern Railways mull new rail line from Nagapattinam to Tiruthuraiipoondi (more news)
- Mission Biofuels to set up refinery in Orissa (more news)

First announcement

- Karnataka road modernisation project launched (more news)
- AllGreen to set up 10 biomass plants (more news)

Appointment of partners

- Wilbur Smith Associates appointed as consultants for Chennai corridor project (more news, project details)

Approvals, Clearances

- CCEA nod for infra projects worth Rs.34,000 crore (more news)
- CCEA approves Chennai Metro project (more news, project details)
- Cabinet clears highway projects worth Rs. 18238.05 crore (more news, project details)
- Four laning of Vijayawada-Machilipatnam highway gets green signal (more news, project details)
- CCEA approves higher highways project costs (more news)
- ONGC gives go ahead for MHN redevelopment project (more news)
- Orissa gives nod to Rs.37,989 crore steel, power projects (more news)
- Parli, Paras Bhusawal power stations to get new generator sets (more news)